

I strongly oppose any loosening of the cross-ownership ban on media outlets in the same geographic area. The FCC should not take steps that would further reduce the already limited media diversity present in most areas of the country.